

Join the team at Rural Northwest Health

Rural Northwest Health is a public health service with a focus on providing high-quality care and services to its residents and clients, and providing a supportive environment to its team members

Allied Health Assistant

Campus wide | Full-time (with ADO)

We are seeking an Allied Health Assistant to work closely with Allied Health professionals to support consumers in achieving the goals outlined in their individual treatment plans. The role focuses on promoting independence, enhancing wellbeing, and supporting consumers to participate in activities that maximise their functional abilities and quality of life.

Responsibilities include assisting with the implementation of prescribed therapy programs, monitoring and reporting consumer progress, setting up and maintaining therapy equipment, preparing treatment areas, and ensuring resources are readily available for clinical use. The Allied Health Assistant will also provide administrative support, including managing intake enquiries, scheduling appointments, maintaining accurate records, and assisting with day-to-day operational tasks. The role requires a person-centred approach, strong communication skills, and the ability to work collaboratively within a multidisciplinary team to deliver high-quality care and support services.

The successful candidate will have:

- Qualifications as an Allied Health Assistant
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- Ability to plan and organise own workload to support the functions of the team
- Knowledge of standard infection control precautions and demonstrated application of these principles in the direct client care context
- Knowledge of health terminology that describes normal structure and location of major body systems
- Current flu vaccination evidence
- Current Working with Children Check and Police Clearance, or willingness to obtain one

What we can offer you:

- Opportunities for personal and professional development
- Generous salary packaging benefits
- Accrued Day Off (ADO) monthly entitlement for full-time employees
- Access to our Employee Assistance Program (EAP)
- A progressive, friendly, and supportive team environment

For more information about this role, please contact:

Courtney Griffin-Jones

Acting Allied Health Team Leader / Exercise Physiologist

(03) 5396 1200

To express your interest in this position, please forward your resume and a cover letter detailing your experience on the above points to applications@rnh.net.au

Rural Northwest Health is an Equal Opportunity Employer. We celebrate diversity and are committed to creating an inclusive environment for all employees.

